BEAVER STREET A History of Modern Pornography

Robert Rosen

Rosen unveils the mechanics of porn profiteers, and traces the history that changed the political, technological and cultural contexts of porn.

For 16 years Rosen worked at High Society, Stag, and D-Cup. He offers a darkly engaging account of porn's tumultuous decades, from ladmags to the creation of the .xxx address.

This is a portrait of an exceptional American workplace, full of tyrants, cynics, perverts and drug addicts. The owners got filthy rich while Rosen and his colleagues sweated blood to fulfill their demanding, yet squalid, responsibilities.
